Getting the Most Out of Your Daily Bible Reading

As you read the Bible each day, allow the Scriptures to speak to you. This daily "dialogue" between you and the biblical text will reveal new understandings about God, and about yourself.

- Set aside time to read the Bible on a daily basis.
- Find a quiet place to read and reflect on each day's reading.
- Begin with prayer, asking God for guidance and blessing.

Here are some suggestions to guide you in your daily reading:

Read the passage for the first time without stopping in order to gain an overall sense of what is being said.

Read the passage a second time, asking yourself questions about the text: In what book of the Bible is this passage found? Is it a prophetic book? A historical book? A book of poetry? A Gospel? A letter? Who are the main characters? Where do the events take place? What key words or phrases are repeated? What is the intent or purpose of the passage?

Read the passage a third time, reflecting on these questions: What did I learn about God? What did I learn about human nature? What did I learn about my own relationship to God? I believe that God is inviting me to:

The American Bible Society's sole purpose since its founding in 1816 has been to make the Bible available to every person in a language and format each can understand and afford, so all may experience its life-changing message. In so doing, the Bible Society affirms the power of God to speak to every generation through the Holy Scriptures. This purpose is undertaken without doctrinal note or comment and without profit. This vital Scripture ministry is made possible by gifts of individuals and churches who desire to see God's Word read, heard, and loved throughout the world.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY

The apostle Paul wrote:
Freedom is what we have — Christ has set us free! ...As for you, my friends, you were called to be free. But do not let this freedom become an excuse for letting your physical desires control you. Instead, let love make you serve one another.
For the whole Law is summed up in one commandment:
"Love your neighbor as you love yourself."
